

STARS OF GAOMEIGU

STARS OF GAOMEIGU

Serbia, China | 2017 | 23 min

At the Gaomeigu observatory, Naxi people observe the sky. The telescope triggers their local legends, both old and new. There is a legend about the Leader who fed his people. There is a story about Sanduo, a folk tale hero from the Middle ages. Today, he is a skater in the big city. Two gods are in love, but a foreigner interferes.

Marko Grba Singh was born in 1988 in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. He is currently on his PhD studies in Film directing, exploring docu-fiction. His mid-length film Abdul & Hamza won the Special mention at the First film competition at FID Marseille 2015. He was a member of the student jury at San Sebastian Film Festival in 2016. Stars of Gaomeigu won the award for Most innovative short film at Visions du réel 2017.

Contact:

Marko Grba Singh | +381 64 164 22 52 | pinklayne@gmail.com

Director: Marko Grba Singh

Image: Marko Grba Singh

Editing: Jelena Maksimovic

Sound: Jakov Munizaba

Cast: Peng Yialu, Shuke, Ding Yao, Jiang Lian, Marko Grba Singh

Production: Looking China Project, Non-Aligned Films

Filmography:

Stars of Gaomeigu (2017)

Abdul & Hamza (2015)

If I Had It My Way I Would Never Leave (2015)

Pale (2013)

At Least We've Met (2012)